Next week you will receive a letter regarding some building work that will commence after the Christmas break. This is a very exciting project and will result in improvements for many children. This does mean however, that there will be some disruption to the school and the library will be shut. Therefore all library books will need to be returned to school next week.

We do have a lot of sickness in school at the moment. Please discuss with your child the importance of washing hands after using the toilet. We are constantly reinforcing this but your support in this matter would be greatly appreciated. At the end of the school day we have four cleaners who spend three hours each thoroughly cleaning the building but it only takes a few children to go to the toilet and not wash their hands for all sort of germs to spread.

We look forward to the choir performing at Wellingborough Library tomorrow with the first of a group of performances over the next couple of weeks. They are scheduled to sing at approximately 10.30 am so if you are in the town centre please pop in.

Thank you to all of you who have attended the Family Learning Review Meetings so far and have appointments booked for next week. These are very important as they provide you with an insight into how your child is progressing and an opportunity to share successes. It is expected that the child attends so they can be part of the conversation about their learning. If for whatever reason you are unable to attend please let the school know and an alternative time can be found. Yesterday with the Willow class FLRM's 5 parents didn't arrive for their appointments which amounted to an hour and a 15 minutes which left some children upset as they were not sure where their parents were. During the FLRM's, we are carrying out a short survey connected to homework as on Tuesday at the Parent Forum, homework was discussed and parents had some questions and ideas. The questionnaire is very quick and easy and available on I pads from the front office.

It was fabulous seeing so many parents on Tuesday at our Deck the Halls activity afternoon and Christmas will soon be with us ! There are some lovely photos of the event on our school Facebook page. Just search All Saints Wellingborough! The school christmas post box will be available next week for children to post their Christmas cards to each other.

I look forward to seeing you next week for your FLRM's if I haven't already and hope that many of you can join us on Friday for our Christingle Celebration at 9.30 at the church. This is always such a beautiful service which starts our countdown to Christmas.
